Now I think it's better off this way
Now I think it's better off better off

I had what I want
In my hands slip away again
I hate regretting the
Things I've done
Cannot help but dwell on the thought
That I let it slip away

Now I think it's better off this way
Now I think it's better off better off
Clarity is what I'm facing
Now I think it's better off better off this way

Unerstandig seems so clear

When it's happening I feel so blind,
We'll chase away the fear that made yesterday real
Cannot help but dwell on the thought that I,
Let it slip away

Now I think it's better off this way
Now I think it's better off better off
Clarity is what I'm facing
Now I think it's better off better off this way

Cannot help but dwell on the thought
That I, let it slip away
