Assassinate everyone who stands so
Against the grain, violate the normal
Fighting through the crowd
Deafened by the sound of destruction
Chaos on the street
Blood at their feet
In a frenzy

Shed some light on how
It turns around
When our broken hero's found
It's on TV, for all to see
When our broken hero's found

It penetrates the mind of those who question
Authority and it's motivation
Fighting through the crowd
Deafened by the sound of destruction

Chaos on the street
Blood at their feet
In a frenzy

Shed some light on how
It turns around
When our broken hero's found
It's on TV, for all to see
When our broken hero's found

Take a stand for the right to speak
Then shot out of fear of being followed
It's time again for history to repeat itself

Shed some light on how
It turns around
When our broken hero's found
It's on TV, for all to see
When our broken hero's found
