Closed the door - walked out toay
Searching for - my own way
Thought the odds were to high for me to face
Thought your words were something I should take
Felt it's time to try to find another way
Never want to go through that again

Finding myself
Instead
Rather risk it all then go the way you made for me

Closed the door - walked out toay
Searching for - my own way
Thought the odds were to high for me to face
Thought your words were something I should take
Felt it's time to try to find another way

Never want to go through that again

Finding myself
Instead
Rather risk it all then go the way you made for me
Finding myself instead
Rather rist it all then go the way you made for me

If you saw things through my eyes
Then you'd realize
I'm gonna be alright

Finding myself
Instead
Rather risk it all then go the way you made for me
Finding myself instead
Rather rist it all then go the way you made for me

Cloed the door - walked out today
