"Survival Of The Richest"

The world is fucked and were all stuck
There's no purity here
When we're young and naive
We believe in decency
The older we get we collect reality

I wanna believe in faith
I wanna believe in change
I only see our demise

We're all plagued by this filth
Slave to the green we become
When we're young and naive
We believe in decency
The older we get we collect reality
I wanna believe in faith
I wanna believe in change
I only see our demise

It's the survival of the richest
There's no fucking honor here
You can strip me of all of my pride
Before I give in to your steril lifestyle

I wanna believe in faith
I wanna believe in change
I only see our demise
