Dead eyes i know you hate it put on a mechanical smile shake their hands and fake it till you make it baby moving up moving on right where you dont belong the skylines burning bright the suits are marching left right left right theyre looking for my soul but theyll never take me back again dead eyes why cant you leave it leave it leave it all behind big brother got you right where it wants you moving up moving on right where you dont belong the skylines burning bright the suits are marching left right left right theyre looking for my soul but theyll never take me back again theyre everywhere you look the skylines burning bright the suits are marching left right left right theyre looking for my soul but theyll never take me back again
