All the pictures
Spread as they fell
And the light came in To dark to tell
But you shied away
Just a little to soon
You could've tried again
Couldn't you

i thought it was you
but you knew
but you knew
i took it from you
but you knew
didn't you?

Memories lapse
When they're asked to You could have recalled
Couldn't you?
But your memory
Faded a little too soon
And the light had gone
When you left the room

i thought it was you
but you knew
but you knew
i took it from you
but you knew
didn't you?

i thought it was you
but you knew
but you knew
i thought it was you
but you knew
