Visit "My Time" on MotoLyrics.com

It has been running through my mind
That you're not my kine
But I don't mind
It's just that I'm doing fine
Inside my mind
It's my time

My time, my time, my time

I have known you for quite some time
I haven't seen a sign
You even know the place I live
You can't receive the love I give
But it doesn't matter anyway
Anyhow, any day now
I'll be leaving here to stay
It's my time

My time, my time, my time

I haven't seen the light shining from your eyes
That signifies
That your disguise
Has not been lifted from your face
You're just the past to me my place
Is not around you and your lace
Is only taking up my space
It's my time

My time, my time, my time
