Going back right the cities through the country rivers so pretty people wonder why I'm going back home.
Just the place where I belong back home
back home
back home
back home.

Well I'm a round the world rambler
It's always good to be back home - round and round the world goes round got ma friends in every town from border to border every place I've been but I've gotta be back if you know what I mean

back home
back home
back home
back home.

It's always good to be back home.
