From the Albums:

- * N.E.W.S.
- * Something heavy going down

He drove his car into the city
The engine hot, the heat was on
He realized, he'd come to a crossroad and there's only one way he knows
They're not gonna get me
and I'm never gonna be betrayed no more
He was back and someone had to pay for the time that he had done
When diamonds shine on pretty ladies
Stool-pigeon is always around
They're not gonna get me
and I'm never gonna be betrayed no more

Step in my boots and see if you can make it Take my chain and see if you can break it
Mission impossible
Chased by a low invincible
I don't mind, I don't care
I'm used to fighting my way back
Unaware of a mission impossible
It was a fact he was smarter than the others
Still controlled his part of town
It was an eye for an eye in the shadows
Looking down the barrel of a gun
