From the Album:

* Keeper of the flame

I believe that all around, we're all waiting for a sound that will break the barriers down, and will make us all feel better
After all the madness' gone, after all I feel it's coming
There's a slogan on the wall, like a finger on a trigger
There's a truth behind it all, I believe it's getting bigger But it's all up to you, and it's all up to me, yeah, it's all up to me
Your sweettalking babe, won't turn the world around Meet me underground, turn the world around Climb a mountain yeah, cry me an ocean too Turn the world around, turn the world around There's no problem babe, you're right, I'm wrong Let's strike a bargain, ãfÂfÃçÊÁšÃfÂ,'cause together we're strong
All your sense, all your love
Can't stop the fire from above

Don't you know?, when I go, you're gonna go too
Let's turn the world around Darlin' daughter, I've been told, gettin' younger, turnin' old Hides a moment, caught in time, in a mirror, that's gone blind
I can see inside my minds'eye, we may get the future right
There's a slogan on the wall, like a finger on a trigger There's a truth behind it all, everyday it's getting bigger
But it's all up to you, and it's all up to me
Don't say impossible, when it's possible
We're responsible, let's turn the world around Only one light to follow, only one dream to share Let's strike a bargain, it's gonna get us there
All your sense.....all your love.....
