Verse Section - alternate between Am (or A5 or A) and C until the chorus

Verse 1

The wheels are spinning inside of my head
The wheels are spinning inside of my head
They don't know, they don't know
The leaves listen to what I say
The leaves listen to what I say
They don't know, they don't know
It's a stab in the dark

Chorus

[Dm]the light slept on the [C]riverbed
[Dm]the light slept on the [C]riverbed
[Dm]slipped into the [Bb]shadows
And landed like a [C]figurehead

Verse 2

The moral night is the darkest night
The moral night is the darkest night
They don't know, they don't know
I cut my feet on the white shell road
I cut my feet on the white shell road
They don't know, they don't know
It's a stab in the dark

Chorus

[Dm]the light slept on the [C]riverbed
[Dm]the light slept on the [C]riverbed
[Dm]slipped into the [Bb]shadows
And landed like a [C]figurehead

Solo over the the Am C thingy (that might be A C)

[A]then I saw her [E]runn[F]ing
[A]down, down in the [E]gard[F]en
[G]her hair was flowing round and brown
[G#m]tumbled and stumbled to the ground and [Am]died

The leaves listen to what I say

The leaves listen to what I say
They don't know, they don't know
I cut my feet on the white shell road
I cut my feet on the white shell road
They don't know, they don't know
It's a stab in the dark

The light slept on the riverbed
The light slept on the riverbed
Slipped into the shadows
And landed like a figurehead

They don't know ...

It's a stab in the dark
