"Out Of The Moon"

Visit "Out Of The Moon" on MotoLyrics.com

Out of the moon you come
You will desert me but at first we're one
I ride beside you through the armies of the sun
What is it you are, are you a dream

What of the time we have
To be together in this air we breathe
You say forever but I know you've gotta go
What is it you are, are you a dream

I could tell you that I'm always gonna miss you
I could tell you that I'll never be the same
You won't even here me

What's the point in crying,
Whats the point in hurting
In the shadow of the day
When I'm with you
I don't remember anyway

I could tell you that I'm always gonna miss you
I could tell you that I'll never be the same
You won't even here me

What's the point in crying,
Whats the point in hurting
In the shadow of the day
When I'm with you
I don't remember anyway

Back to the moon you go
Is there a reason I can never know
You made my tears come
And blood run all the time
What is it you are, are you a dream
Are you a dream, are you a dream
