"Innocent"

The start of Armaggedon,
and it's just another day,
we all saw the news, nothing to say.

So many friends are missing,
a family members gone,
so we all prayed that God help them be strong.

And now we stand together,
remembering that day.
The lives we live will never be the same.

We don't know why,
the innocent die.
Will this world ever find a way to change.

We don't know why,
but we know it's not right.
Don't know why so many had to die.
Don't know why so many had to die.

Hate has to turned to others,
for their religion or their skin.
But hate can't solve the problem it began.

Everyone is angry,
people are afraid,
and no one knows what decisions will be made.

We don't know why,
the innocent die.
will this world ever find a way to change.

We don't know why,
but we know it's not right,
don't know why so many had to die,
don't know why so many had to die.

We don't know why,
the innocent die,
will this world ever find a way to change.

We don't know why,
but we know it's not right,
Will any of us ever be the same,
will any of this ever be the same.

I don't know why,
the innocent die,
will any of us ever be the same,
will any of this ever be the same.
