[Tribute By Goldfinger, Good Charlotte, Mest]

The start of Armageddon
And it's just another day
We all saw the news nothing to say

So many friends are missing
So many friends are missing
Family members gone
So we all preyed and God help them be strong

And now we stand together
Remembering that day
The lives we live will never be the same

And we don't know why
The innocent die
Will this world ever find a way to change?

And we don't know why
But we know it's not right
We don't know why so many had to die
We don't know why so many had to die

Hate has turned to others
For their religion or their skin
But hate can't solve the problem it began
Everyone is angry
People are afraid
And no one knows what decisions will be made

And we don't know why
The innocent die
Will this world ever find a way to change?

And we don't know why
But we know it's not right
We don't know why so many had to die
We don't know why so many had to die

And we don't know why
The innocent die

Will this world ever find a way to change?

And we don't know why
But we know it's not right
Will any of us ever be the same?
Will any of this ever be the same

And we don't know why
Will any of us ever be the same?
Will any of this ever be the same
