(Unreleased Felt Mountain b-side)

A fondue knight
On a winters day
I do in snow
In summer rain
Don?t let it go
Don?t blow away
This could so sweet
On a different day
Those umbrellas in the sea
And they tremble like a distant star
They are for plays
Waiting for you
Feel so small
Underneath this sky
This dirty pornstar
Isnt big enough
Don?t let it go
Don?t blow away
This could be so sweet
On a different day
Those umbrellas in the sea
And they tremble like a distant star
They are folding
Just for you
