(Unreleased live Felt Mountain b-side)

Don't let this love
Own me completely
You know how love does sometimes

Black satin tears
Rule the night
Just to be
But you'll never here to dream

You're blind
But your blind as always

If I confess
Will it break the spell
My mind is full of you that's all

A little death
Occurred so sweetly
My mind will leave this world without you

Sing the sun, sublime
You're my state of mind

You always
You will love to admit

Little death
I'll give you just a dime
Little death
I'll give you everything
Little death
I'll give you everything
