Missing lovin' cause you're not here to hold me tight
Missing livin' I'd never leave the house at night
Missing you but soon you'll come and all this longing will be true
Missing lovin' missing livin' missing you

I've counted the weeks the days and now the hours
I walked all alone and I talked to the flowers
It hasn't been easy staying home being true
Missing lovin' missing livin' missing you
Missing lovin'...

[steel]

Missing lovin' missing livin' missing you
