intro - my name is lars, which i am a representative of the european arm of the goldie lookin' chain. we are mainly listening to metal and all types of tight jean wearing cool music, for sure, haha, you know, silver shadow really rock my world.

like a science experiment turned into a horrific nightmare, it has been discovered that without shit gold, the bad boy will cease to exist, for only the power of the shit metal can bring out the GLC in you...

i got a chaaaaiiin when i came of age with a sovereign on my finger to control my rage before i had a chain i was a mental wreck but the doctor says i'm sane with a chain around my neck without metal i'm taking a chance my tracksuit's too baggy and my balls sag in my pants it's a proven fact only metal makes me dance like ozzy ozbourne with his hands down my pants he feels the sweat and falls to his knees and screams...feel the power of the GLC i gotta leather tracksuit, escaping with the loot with a futuristic dial of 'can you compute' you don't understand what it means when you feel the gold sometimes it's hot and sometimes it's cold that's right, the other day i was wearin' it in the sunshine an' it was fcukin' so hot it was burning me...safe chorus - i love my, i love my, i love my GLC i love my, i love my, i love my GLC levi's and trainers just like a bloke called simon the GLC metal sounds real to me remove the panties and penetrate the hymen you've got to coz it's rock - GLC like a telephone, i got loadsa rings this one is made of metal from some school-girls tampon bins i collect 'em from the toilets in the sports gyms and pay money to the headmaster to alleviate my sins yeah, big up to the fcukin' hi-tech silver shadow massive you knows it.....knows it.....knows it back in the port with my new gold chain you knows it's right, so bring on the pain with my GLC crew i hear you cl*t newport clarts, you fcukin' knows it...fcukin' safe respect fcukin' due, you fcukin' knows it chorus - i love my, i love my, i love my GLC

i love my, i love my, i love my GLC wibbly wobbly woo, you knows what to do better head bob, it's the GLC crew i'll cut you into pieces and cook you in a stew i'll throw out the bigger pieces and flush the rest down the loo

me swapped me tracksuit for a shakin-stevens look me got shit hi-tecs from a catalogue book me grew me hair, like rik parfitt me likes whitesnake, you fcukin' knows it yes, yes, i gotta confess to the robbings and the beatings, i'll leave your mind in a mess i felt like bonnie tyler from the fcukin' start it was a total eclipse of the heart whitesnake, hawkwind, van halen, lindesfarne we're better than def leppard and their drummer with one arm we can wipe our asses and do the washing up and when we drinks the lager we puts both hands on our cup

chorus - i love my, i love my, i love my GLC
i love my, i love my, i love my GLC serious man, it's fcukin' wicked, i loves iron maiden i listens to hear the fcukin' cannibal corpse and slayer fcukin' they're my favourite fcukin' bands i can't get the rift of the metal when i'm not wearin my gold i'm fcukin' listening to metal.....you knows it i've discovered several hobbies over the years i've got chains and my tracksuits but now i've got tight jeans and a pair of hi-tech silver shadow all in the name of motley crew, poison, alice cooper an' my favourite's iron maiden, tightest jeans in fcukin' showbusiness.....ah hahahahaaa hi rock fans, again this is lars making large respect on behalf of the european GLC movement who you are knowing better as always would be the euro hike back pack massive, or BPM...big up (something?) this is jennifer rush...for sure, i was touching myself up to the soft porn channel
