Alright lee, i'm just chillin down Shaftsbury, got the gold, catch u later...

Psych

Don't go, busting my balls

Or I'll smash your brain all over the walls

Its the chain, and we can't refrain

Youre out of your mind just like Dane. Bowers

Were open all hours

Like a superhuman with superhuman powers

Newport was the place I was taught

To do the beatings and so I fought. The law

Like the hooded claw, I'll fcuk you up, if you're sure

You don't wanna get away or escape,

I got a fcukin shell suit cape, like batman

The scampi monkey is in my brain,

He did it before, and he do it again,

Give special powers to my man, P.Xian

He put on a cape and he put on a chain

He can see womens pants if he focus his brain,

He make young girls play special sick games

Death by fire, I make you expire,

I told you I was sane, but you knows i'm a liar

Im never ever gonna fcukin retire,

You can call me sir, or you can call me sior

Chant of the GLC like a gospel choir,

Weve got the hardware like Brandon Tool Hire

We got, transformers robots in disguise,

Huge big up to Newport cabin supplies.

Mind control, and the power of ten

Can serve you right, time and again

While you're in the pub, and out for a fight

The power of ten, will make it right

Pullin a bird, in the back of a club,

Mind control and hypno guarantees a rub

But back at her place, the temptation is strong,

To have a posh wank and hit it hard on the bong

Ill cook you up like gary roads

But instead of a stove I'll use electrodes,

Electricity fills my mind, the draw Im smoking was special refined

Flames of death, that's what they shout

Down the Coldra roundabout,

The glc, are safe as fcuk no doubt,
I thought I had scabies, but it was gout
Shout, shout let it all out,
The draw and the fags, I can't do without
We got, transformers, robots in disguise
Huge big up to Newport cabin supplies
Climbin up walls and lookin through windows,
With my new plastic pairs,
I can spray spunk on bimbos
Whered he come from? He sounds like Michael Caine
He's an honorary member of the Goldie lookin chain
Hes got funny glasses and a big wavy maine
And if you ask his name, hell say it's BBJ
Transformers, robots in disguise
Huge big up to Newport cabin supplies
Do ray me la so la tee doe
Don't you know, I smokes the blow
I goes down the strip club to watch the show,
I got my own seat in the fcukin front row
All the girls love me, especially Joe
And afterwards she lets me have a go
Were like, Transformers, robots in disguise
Huge big up to Newport cabin supplies
Transformers, robots in disguise
Huge big up to Newport cabin supplies
