Hey babe, there's a side of me you don't even want to see

'Cause it's cruel

And unusual for you to ever want to feel

(ah-da-da, ah-da-da)

Hey babe, there's a side of me you know you'll never see

And it's me

And it's breaking you it's breaking me, it's breaking us inside

You lie

You don't have your light on

You don't see what's dragging you down

You can't help but hold on, but babe

Things are changing so fast

So Fast

And hey, babe, there's a side of me you don't even want to see

'Cause it's cruel

And unusual for you to ever want to feel Inside

You lied (ooh)

You don't have your light on

You don't see what's dragging you down

You can't help but hold on

But babe, things are changing so fast

Things are changing so fast
