For 7 years and 7 months the fear has been asleep i carried it all deep so inside like a promise i tried to keep.
a sea of pain and disbelief but to you i must confide the pain is rising the fear is swelling the weight is overwhelming the soul is disintegrating do you know who you are in the end grab all you can i hear you preaching but i cant i cant i cant i cant hear a thing the bones are cracking the skull is cracking the skin is ripping the devil is crawling its way out speaking tongues
