Do you believe in me? yes I believe in you!
I don't know what to do I don't know what to
Do you believe in me as I believe in you?
I don't know what to do to expand my point of view

My lack of inspiration I need a control!
Lack of motivation I need a control!
I don't know what to do I don't know what to

Do you believe in me? there's nothing left to be
I don't know what to do to impress you
You ripped my heart in two
I walked through shadows there to see this creature
fair
I almost sold my soul
Sometimes it feels so nice to be dumb

My lack of inspiration I need a control!
Lack of motivation lack of inspiration
I need a control! I need a control!
I don't know what to do to impress you
Lack of motivation lack of inspiration
I need a control! I need a control!
I need a control!

I don't know what to do
Do you believe in me?
Yes I believe in you!
