"Ping One Down"

We'll return to the ocean Ride the tide again Test the water, jump right in And try to swim Sink on down So ping one down Let it sink Like heavy metal We should take off the lotion Let the sun shine in And fry again Admire the holes with shaded eyes And ping one down Sink on down Let it sink Like heavy metal Ping one down Let it sink Don't ponce around Like poor old men This sterile scene Move as we please Colour clean Purify now No use in complaining Saints alive We're all deprived Be careful what you're saying Just collecting skin We've been on a safari But high again Head to toe in camouflage And let it sink So ping one down Like heavy metal Sink on down Colour clean This sterile scene Move as we please No use in complaining Purify now Saints alive We're all deprived Be careful what you're saying Careful what you're saying Careful what you're saying
