I don't know when it started
Race for power and control
I suppose long time ago
I suppose long time ago

I'm sure I won't crawl through
Broken glass and razor wire
They say jump I won't say how high
I'll break their border

I want no world repression
I want no race rejection
I want no race rejection
No media pollution
No war no church corruption
Utopic science fiction?

Brick by brick state's still border
Prick by prick new world order
McSlaughterhouse's still murder
I want no world repression!
I want no world repression!
I want no world repression!
Utopic science fiction
