Red old eyes, now where you from
You catch me every day
Colors hide, not even sun
It's all been washed away

Sun, stop going down, come out again
Stop fading now, awake again
Sun, stop going down, stop going down

Bruised or faced, you've finally come around
And talking in your sleep
Buried secrets and fiery showdowns
Lost his in-between

It's all the same, would you
Let it go before it gets too late
Don't play again

Sun, stop going down, come out again
Stop fading now, awake again
Sun, stop going down, stop going down

Sun is going down, come out again
Don't feel so proud, get straight again
Sun, stop going down, stop going down

It's all the same, would you
Let it go before it gets too late
Don't play again

Sun, stop going down, come out again
Stop fading now, awake again
Sun, stop going down, stop going down

Sun is going down, come out again
Don't feel so proud, get straight again
Sun, stop going down, stop going down

Sun, stop going down, come out again
Stop fading now, awake again
Sun, stop going down, stop going down

Sun is going down, come out again
Don't feel so proud, get straight again
Sun, stop going down, stop going down
