You like to think that you're taking over
Well I can tell you well I'm all in the show
I can put you in your place so easy
As no one but who you know

I get my back seat to the cleaners
Wash your hair and clench your soap
You dip me in and drip me feels too everlasting but It's no match for rock'n'roll

Treating me like ROYALTY is not gonna matter 'cause
I'm the king
And the king ain't listening to anyone who isn't wearing leather, at all
Treating me like ROYALTY is not gonna matter 'cause
I'm the king
And the king ain't listening to anyone who isn't wearing
leather, at all

Treating me like ROYALTY is not gonna matter 'cause
I'm the king
And the king ain't listening to anyone who isn't wearing
leather, at all
Treating me like ROYALTY is not gonna matter 'cause
I'm the king

And the king ain't listening to anyone who isn't wearing
leather, at all
