You know I never meant to hurt you
Never meant to see you cry
And I never would desert you
Wipe the tears now from your eyes

Cause I know that I was wrong
To keep you hanging on
Through all this precious time

And when you touch me in the morning
When I reach for you at night
Feel our souls together, soaring
Spirit taking flight

And I know it can't be wrong
To keep on keepin' on
Through all this precious time
Time on my own
Led me back home to your side
The love that you've shown
Helping me grow through my pride

Now I watch you as you're sleeping
Like an angel dressed in light
And all the secrets you are keeping
Are safe with me inside

And I know it can't be wrong
To keep on keepin' on
Through all this precious time
