De Ja Vo

They're playing that song

I can't stop thinking 'bout you

Can't tune out

I'm too turned on

And it's too late to turn it down

Play it one more time for me

DJ, please.

Does the DJ knows what he's doing to me

It's getting to hard to breathe

Does the DJ know when I hear that song,

I want you all over me

Turn it up

Going down

Play alone when you're not around

Does the DJ know when he plays that song...

Does he know I need you here tonight

Sing along

You're the key

The pain so good

I'm losing my immunity

Such a tease

I close my eyes, pretending that you're here with me

Play it one more time for me

DJ, please.

Does the DJ knows what he's doing to me

It's getting to hard to breathe

Does the DJ know when I hear that song,

I want you all over me

Turn it up

Going down

Play alone when you're not around

Does the DJ know when he plays that song...

Does he know I need you here tonight

Maybe it's the start of something cause you are the one thing that I can't forget

All up in my head

You put me in a spin
The soundtrack of the day we met
