On the brink of happiness
feet carried by hope
i turn my eyes
toward the light at the end of the tunnel

but it's nightfall already
and now I'm blind
i'm running straight
into a reoccurring evil

why... why won't it brighten up?
why is dawn followed
directly by twilight
and night?

what happened to daytime and light?

why... why won't it brighten up?
why is dawn followed
directly by twilight
and night?

what happened to daytime and light?

tell me... tell me!
what's your part in this?
don't you know
where your heart is?
