Break out with hands untied, stand out with naked eyes Speak out with words unsaid, don't be too sensitive And after knowing what did you do and after what you put me through
To think i would stick with you.....

Something tells me I just might be right for once in my life
Something tells me i just might be right

So what's it to ya, I just don't care anymore
Get up, get up, get up, get up
I want this more
I see right through ya, this just don't scare me no more
get up, get up, get up, get up
I want this more than you'll ever know

This time you've gone too far, I see your soap box breaking
Put out that fat cigar, that falling star of expectation And after knowing what you're capable of I don't think you're stable enough, don't think you're able to love

Something tells me I just might be right for once in my

Something tells me i just might be right

So what's it to ya, I just don't care anymore
Get up, get up, get up, get up
I want this more
I see right through ya, this just don't scare me no more
get up, get up, get up, get up
I want this more than you'll ever know

One Step at a time
One last look behind
One chance is all i need One soul left for.....

Something tells me I just might be right for once in my

Something tells me i just might be....

So what's it to ya, I just don't care anymore

I want this more

get up, get up, get up, get up

I want this more than you'll ever know

you'll never know(repeats)
