Nobody told you
What to do or where to hide
No one controlled you
Something swelled up from inside
There's no surprise we're magnetized
One step at a time I find that you were my lifeline

Want to tell you just what I am thinking if you'll listen
I'll tell you once, I'll tell you twice
Just can't be without you, you're my picture perfect
person
If I have to fall then I'll pay that price

Made all my mistakes
Time to finally get it right
How many handshakes does it take to end a fight
You're right inside I'll see you soon Take advantage of the night, it's time to make my move

Want to tell you just what I am thinking if you'll listen

I'll tell you once, I'll tell you twice
Just can't be without you, you're my picture perfect
person
If I have to fall then I'll pay that price

Tell me, tease me
Touch me please me
You left me, you need me
So come back, it's easy
You're never forgotten
Forever means nothing
I'll wait now, cause you're the one

Made all my mistakes
Time to finally get it right
How many handshakes does it take to end

Want to tell you just what I am thinking if you'll listen
I'll tell you once, I'll tell you twice
Just can't be without you, you're my picture perfect

person

If I have to fall then I'll pay that price
