'Live Love' by Brian Benham

There's a fine fine line, that we want to define
The colors that bind, behind our minds
I can see it now, I can see it now
There's a satellite in the darkest sky shooting right on by
Silent as it flies on by

The more I think about it
Well the less I've let you go
The harder that it gets
An easy thing to know is

If you live love it comes back to you
And if you want love all you've got to to is
Believe now, that everything you do
Is moving you toward something true

There's a mighty fine lie being spread by the sly
Oh go run and hide, beware of this lie
Seek your shelter now, go seek some shelter now
I see the deeper side, of a simple life
Don't need a thing they lie
Calling out to find, they lie, oh my

The more I think about it
Well the less I've let you go
The harder that it gets
An easy thing to know is

There's a fine fine line, that we want to define
The colors that bind, behind our minds
I can see it now, I can see it now
There's a satellite in the darkest sky shooting right on
by
Silent as it flies on by

The more I think about it
Well the less I've let you go
The harder that it gets
An easy thing to know is

If you live love it comes back to you
And if you want love all you've got to to is
Believe now, that everything you do
Is moving you toward something true

Mark the marker, meet the maker
Take oh take your time
I've got a heartache that is big enough to change your mind
To change your mind

If you live love it comes back to you
And if you want love all you've got to to is
Believe now, that everything you do
Is moving you toward something true

If you live love it comes back to you
And if you want love all you've got to to is
Believe now, that everything you do
Is moving you toward something true

That's all you do, that's what you do
