Caught the lie in vein, you're always camera shy and plain
I wonder if the weather's ever gonna stop
Happy that you came, I didn't stop to catch your name
Darling we just had the loveliest of talks

Tied to your ties, something just ain't right
Tied to your ties, lose the satchel lose your guise

Stop to face them saying
Caught the bad news names and games
So grounded, no one's ever, ever gonna stop
Cap the latest trend, wait four months step back again
Remember everyone's gonna fit you like they want

Tied to your ties, something just ain't right
Tied to your ties, lose the satchel lose your guise
Louder you'll say, don't erase the pain you've paid a number
Higher than the highest of them all
Pace your feet don't stray, speak convictive as you may
And darling, flash a little smile while you talk

Tied to your ties, something just ain't right
Tied to your ties, lose the satchel lose your guise

Tied to your ties, something just ain't right
Tied to your ties, lose the satchel lose your guise

Lose the satchel lose your guise
