I called you up all night til mornin'
Left my house by noon today, and I saw you standing there
No one spoke, but we both listened Heard every word you didn't say

And the sun shines all around us Smells like summer's on the way, and I saw you standing there
Tell the story of a lifetime
Tomorrow brings a brand new day

Don't worry 'bout today, and the words that you said Don't worry 'bout today, shake the world from your head
Least for a while

You see, the day keeps getting longer
But my nights seem longer still, and my TV's off the air Watching repeats on my ceiling
Another hour left to kill

Don't worry 'bout today, shake the world from your
Least for a while
