Help im all alone again
I dont know where to go any more Where have you been all this time will you please help me now i am lost once again i cant survive this anymore will you take my hand and lead me to life

my cold heart is lost my damaged mind has gone somewhere far i need you right now will you come and savve me now will someone lead me to truth i am no more than a man left here all alone

my heart is still very cold i have died long ago will someon bring me back to life i am all alone again i need someones help
