It's good to see the sun and feel this place
This place I never thought would feel like home
And I ran forever
Far away and I always thought I'd end up here alone

Somehow the world has changed me
I've come home
To give back the things they took from you
And I feel you now
I'm not alone
I'll always know where you are

When I see myself, I'll always know where you are
Where you are

And I found something that was always there
Sometimes it's got to hurt before you feel
But now I'm strong and I won't kneel
Except to thank who's watching over me

But somehow I feel so strong
And I've begun
To be the one I never thought I'd be
And I feel you now
I'm not alone
I'll always know where you are

And when I see myself, I'll always know where you are
Where you are

Now, it's all so clear
And I believe that everything's been opened up for me
And I feel you now
I'm not alone
I'll always know, I'll always know where you are

When I see myself, I'll always know where you are
When I feel the sun, I'll always know where you are
When I see myself, I'll always know where you are
Where you are
