I hate to be a nuisance here
But I've been waiting half the year to say
You're bringing on the light
The second hand moves way too slow
But where did all the minutes go?
I say, you're bringing on the light

Oh yeah, Oh yeah bringing on the light
Oh yeah, Oh yeah bringing on the light

There's no right way to do a wrong thing
I can here you say
You're bringing on the light
It's a quick trip there and a long return
So make the grade or feel the burn
They say
You're bringing on the light

Oh yeah, Oh yeah bringing on the light
Oh yeah, Oh yeah bringing on the light

This little place we used to go
Took the place of what we used to know
It's like a magic show
Separating lies from fact
Oh what kind of fun is that?
You're just waiting for your time back

Oh yeah, Oh yeah, bringing on the light (Didn't have the heart to tell you. I ain't got the truth to sell you)
Oh yeah, Oh yeah, bringing on the light (Didn't have the heart to tell you. I ain't got the truth to sell you)
Oh yeah, Oh yeah, Oh yeah, Oh yeah, (Didn't have the heart to tell you. Didn't have the heart to tell you. I ain't got the truth to sell you)

Bringing on the light!
