It's not as blue and clear sky as in California
But my life here is not so bad
But my life here is not so bad

It's not as bright as Christmas night
When I'm walking down the street
But my life here is not so bad
But my life here is not so bad

Meeting my close friends in the same old studio
Sometime I'm talking like a fuckin' idiot
But you know I like the same view that I see everyday

You live your life for yourself
So you don't need to fake yourself
Life is tough, so I know out always morning comes

You live your life for yourself
So you don't need to fake yourself
Life is tough, so I know
Make sure you stick with yourself

It's not as blue and clear sky as in California
But my life here is not so bad
But my life here is not so bad

It's not as bright as Christmas night
When I'm walking down the street
But my life here is not so bad
But my life here is not so bad

Meeting my close friends in the same old studio
Sometime I'm talking like a fuckin' idiot

But you know I like the same view that I see everyday

That's right kids

Meeting my close friends in the same old studio
Sometime I'm talking like a fuckin' idiot
But you know I like the same view that I see everyday

You live your life for yourself
So you don't need to fake yourself
Life is tough, so I know out always morning comes

You live your life for yourself
So you don't need to fake yourself
Life is tough, so I know
Make sure you stick with yourself

You live your life for yourself
So you don't need to fake yourself
Life is tough, so I know out always morning comes

You live your life for yourself
So you don't need to fake yourself
Life is tough, so I know
Make sure you stick with yourself

You live your life for yourself
So you don't need to fake yourself
Life is tough, so I know out always morning comes

You live your life for yourself
So you don't need to fake yourself
Life is tough, so I know
Make sure you stick with yourself
