It feels so strange
To be back at your place
You look away
A smile creeps across your face
Remember the sounds, the laughs, the screams, the crashing plates
How we'd lay awake all night and listen to the rain

What if I just crash here tonight?
I can tell you're lonely
You've seen this look a thousand times
Don't you know what it means?
I just came by to get my things
But now we're both here wondering
What if I just crash here tonight?
Would you let me?

Would you let me?
Would you let me?

I knock on the door
And feel the nervousness inside
You open it up and say hello
And it subsides

So I can admit I've said some things that just aren't true
And we both agree we've done some things we shouldn't do

What if I just crash here tonight?
I can tell you're lonely
You've seen this look a thousand times
Don't you know what it means?
I just came by to get my things
But now we're both here wondering

What if I just crash here tonight?
Would you let me?

Would you let me?
Would you let me?

I know you've been trying so hard to forget me
Ignoring all my calls and I know you've been lonely
And all your girlfriends they won't even look at me

I heard about the guy that you started to date
I heard about the drama
Yeah I heard that you laid him
I did the math and we both know what that means

What if I just crash here tonight?
I can tell you're lonely
You've seen this look a thousand times
Don't you know what it means?
I just came by to get my things
But now we're both here wondering
What if I just crash here tonight?
Would you let me?

Would you let me...
Crash
Would you let me...
Crash
Would you let me...
Crash
