Yeah

For all the popular kids

Yeah listen up

C'mon

Get up, get up, get up

Today I screwed up again

You said I could tell in the way

You said goodbye

I saw you sitting at your t-shirt stand

With your new boyfriend

He's really cool

I get the point

I don't want you

(I heard you, I heard you)

I don't

I heard you say not a chance, what don't you see?

I don't want you

(I heard you, I heard you)

I don't

I heard you say you're not good enough for me

What

Do your thing

C'mon

Today I screwed up again

I wasn't paying attention

I walked into the wall again

I heard you laugh and saw you grin

While you were sitting at your t-shirt stand

With all your cool friends

They're really cool

I get the point

I don't want you

(I heard you, I heard you)

I don't

I heard you say not a chance, what don't you see?

I don't want you
(I heard you, I heard you)
I don't
I heard you say you're not good enough for me

Today I'll give it one last try
And then I know I'll wonder why
I did it to myself once again

I saw your boyfriend he's 6'3"
Quarterback on varsity
The football players love to torture me

So I'm feeling like I'm not fitting in
I know that I'm not fitting in with you
And your stuck-up friends
I get the point

I don't want you
(I heard you, I heard you)
I don't
I heard you say not a chance, what don't you see?

I don't want you
(I heard you, I heard you)
I don't
I heard you say you're not good enough for me

Go, yeah
I heard you
You're not good enough for me

I heard you
C'mon
I heard you
I get the point
