when you're on, i swear you're on i think the whole room can hear me clear my throat then out of nowhere you put me right back there we know what happens when we get to your house you're winning me over with everything you say when i let you closer, i only want you closer.
you rip my heart right out i throw away everything i've written you anything just keep my mind off it thinking how i had you once no, i can't forget that sometimes i wish i could lose you again if you still care at all don't go tell me now if you love me at all please don't tell me now if you love me at all don't call
