You were young,
You were bright,
You were beautiful,
You were everything anyone could want from a child.
You were not supposed to leave this world that way,
You were not supposed to leave this world that day.

You would scribble down the lyrics in your favorite song,
On your notebook in school,
When Your days were long.
And it meant so much for me to know,
That you meant so much you'll never know.

You're gone and we all miss you,
Listen to these songs,
You're alive in every one.
Are you smiling down?
Are you still singing?
Were you with us all along?
Do you like what we've become?

Did I meet you in the crowd at one of our shows?
Did I see you in the faces that all come and go?
Did I ever take the time to just say thanks?
Was I to caught up in my life to ask you your name?

The truth is that this life is that we're all in it together,
That's what you said to me in all your pictures and your letters,
Somehow I believe that you would make me better,
In my heart I know you're gonna live forever.

You're gone and we all miss you,
Listen to these songs,
You're alive in every one.
Are you smiling down?
Are you still singing?
Were you with us all along?
Do you like what we've become?

Are you smiling down?

Are you still singing?
Everyday that passes by,
We celebrate your life,
Can you hear us now?
For you we're singing,
Every song that's in our lives,
I know we'll never be apart.
