The wind blew the torrent of darkness
Through the gusty trees
The moon was a ghostly galleon
Tossed upon cloudy seas
And on that night, I met my master
Fiery eyes and skin of alabaster
I was so full of innocence
Drawn to the shadow of my dark prince
I offered my neck to the bite of death
And sucked the blood of life from his wrists
From that day I was one with the night
Spawned by darkness and free from the light
[knocking]
[Derek:] Michael, mom said come down for dinner [Michael:] What, I can't right now I'm working on the recording for my Myspace profile [Derek:] What are doing?
[Michael:] Get out
[Derek:] What are you going to do about it Michael?
[Michael:] Get out of my room, mom said respect my space Derek
[Derek:] You're such a little dork
[Michael:] Get out, get out, get out

[vampire voice back]
So anyways
Immortal now
I walk the earth
Since the night of my rebirth
I slip the reportorial bounds of breath
And fed on the life of those I kiss
[knocking]
[Michael:] What the hell? Derek I thought I told you... it's coming from the window
[Voices:] Michael.. Michael.. open the window
[Michael:] What... who are you
[Voices:] Open the window
[Michael:] Must open the window
[Voices:] Be one of us Michael [Michael screams]
