Meat! Flesh! Think about it,
So callous to this crime we commit,
Always stuffing our faces with no sympathy,
What a selfish, hardened society,
NO MORE just looking out for myself,
NO MORE when the price is the life of something else,
NO MORE I won't participate,
NO MORE,
We've got the power, we've got the might,
To take whatever is in sight,
Not even worried its an unfair fight,
Well we've got our hearts to show what's right,
We've come a long way since '88,

Because the people have started to educate,
Themselves, their friends, their families,
And we'll have a more conscious, caring society,
If you're with me say NO MORE!
