If i ever left the scene
I wouldn't get too far how could i miss a single zine or a flyer on the wall and if there ever was a show i know i'd have to go and see all of my friends I'm gonna be right here until the end

A couple years and you're gone
Straight Outta Hardcore
now you're moving on Straight Outta Hardcore
when it was trendy you were down
Straight Outta Hardcore
and now you're no where to be found

Straight Outta Hardcore

So now we have all grown
The old days are long gone I guess i should have always known you were just playing along and know you wonder where it went cause you live your whole life in the past I'll be living for the present and won't spend my time just looking back
