Wait,
Half your heart stays with me if your sorry
Stay
Do your part, you are for me, you are the last piece

You've already gone
I'm trying
To get you
To stop you
From running

If you are sure who I am
You don't hear me
And if you leave now, I might die
No, I'm not lying

I've already lost
I'm trying
To get you
To stop you
From running

I'm finding I'm still wanting you
Your leaving never seems to go through

I've already lost
I'm trying
To get you
To stop you
From running

It's our dream
It's our life
It's only a weakness

Here are the problems I've gone looking for
Here are the answers I can't get to you
Here are the problems I've gone looking for
All of the answers are what's left this year.
