I want to feel la-da-dei
I want to feel something strange
I want to feel la-da-dei
I want to feel God's strength
When I was a real guy
I didn't know that I'm so blind
I didn't hear your voice
I was really out of choice

Now I know, now I pray
And I want you to stay

Now I feel la-da-dei
Now I feel something strange
Now I feel la-da-dei
Now I found my best friend
I can hear your tones
I can sing your songs
I believe and I pray
And I want you to stay

I want to feel la-da-dei
I want to feel something strange
I want to feel la-da-dei
I want to feel it every day
Every day and every night
I want you to be by my side
Even when I 'm doing wrong
Oh God make me strong
