Rejection
Like a promise unfulfilled
From an emptiness distilled
As one final sign
Perpetuates our slow decline
WeæŠ³e failed
The systems weæŠ³e created drag us down

On corded streets
WeæŠł die alone
Our dreams are only flesh and bone

One day some ay
When you fall apart and waste away
YouæŠł see no doubt
This world is gonna spit you out

Drained
No sign of life
This world of lies
Is gonna cut you down to size

TheyæŠł spit you out
Like a spoke in their machine
Some people break like glass
It just might be your final chance to feel
Can you distinguish fate from what seems real
Enamored by the romance of regret
