your the only one who comprehends me,
I tell them my spirits lift with every card you send me
I'm trying to be the perfect boy,
The one you wished for.
And I know it's like a dream,
When I hold you in my arms.

Don't turn your pretty face away
I dream about you when I sleep
I could wait a thousand lifetimes just to see you smile
you are always on my mind

Sometimes its so hard,

Too complicated
I know whats in my head,
And all I miss is you.

You are always on my mind
you are always on my mind
