Try and do the things you want,
But you never do them for me,
Try and say the things you want,
But you never say them to me,
And move on, and move on, and move on, and move
on,
To someone else,
But its always the same problem,

Its the way my heart beats,
Ever so softly,
Its the way my heart beats,
Ever so softly,

on,
To someone else,
But its always the same problem, in the end,
And go on, and go on, and go on, and go on,
To your next conquest,
But we've all made the same mistakes,

Its the way my heart beats,
Ever so softly,
Its the way my heart beats,
Ever so softly,

I think yore saying that you will make me,
I think yore saying that you will make me mad,
What if you choose to use turn me round,
I think yore saying that you

Try and do the things you want,
Its the way my heart beats
Try and say the things you want,
Its the way my heart beats
And move on, and move on, and move on, and move
on,
Its the way my heart beats
To someone else,
But its always the same problem,

Its the way my heart beats
